

GETTING TO THE POINT

A Message from Five Points Washington:

I can't believe that 2024 is ending already! Last month, we celebrated our 17th anniversary by showing appreciation to you, our members. While we hope that you feel our appreciation throughout the entire year, we wanted to make sure to share some extra appreciation during October. We are so grateful that you entrust your mental and physical well-being to us. We strive to provide you with quality service, programs, as well as a safe environment for you to better your physical and mental well-being.

With the Holiday season upon us, our Five Points Cares initiatives will be in full swing! Throughout the year, our Five Points Cares initiative actively collaborates with local organizations to offer donations, volunteering hours, and create programs/services that enhance the lives of people in our community and beyond. Starting November 1, we will be holding The Salvation Army's annual Coats for Kids donation drive. Over the 7 years Five Points has been a drop spot for the Coats for Kids campaign, we have collected over 2,220 coats. We have been told that our bin is one of the most generous in the country; that is all thanks to our generous members. Also in November, our annual Toy Drive will start on November 4. During our Toy Drive, our Fitness and Aquatics departments have a friendly competition to see which department will bring in the most toy donations. Our Toy Drive benefits Toys for Tots as well as the Washington Schools. Last year, the Fitness department won the competition, who will be the winner this year?

In these next two months, we will also have plenty of entertainment for you in our Live @ Five Event Center. On November 16, we will be hosting Laughs and Libations in our banquet rooms; this will be a night of food, laughter, music and good times. Then on December 31, come and celebrate New Year's Eve with us! Tickets are on sale starting November 1 for our New Year's Eve event: Betting on 2025. In our Theater, The Wizards of Winter will kick off the holiday season on December 5. Plus, be on the lookout for a full 2025 show series announcement at the end of the year. Start marking your calendars, so you don't miss any of your favorite shows during 2025.

We hope everyone has a great rest of their year! Don't forget to keep an eye on our facility hours and fitness class schedules during the holiday season, as our hours will be adjusted. Make sure to enjoy time with your friends as well as your family and if we don't see you around during the holidays, we hope to see you back in the facility at the start of 2025! Happy holidays everyone.

Meet Personal Trainer Jason:

In 2022, I graduated from OSF St. Francis College of Nursing with my BSN in nursing. Since then, I have been employed by OSF St. Francis for two years.

Because of my love for fitness and the free time that working three 12 hour shifts a week gives me, I decided to get my personal training certificate from NASM this past spring. I am beyond excited to share with others the knowledge I have gained from over five years of research, training and experience in the gym. I cannot wait to share my passion for fitness with my clients!

Jason is available to take on clients Wednesdays, Thursdays and Saturday mornings starting at 7AM.

Contact Jason to set up a personal training session:

YOUR HEALTH AND WELLNESS

I'm Kelsea Sollberger, the Health & Nutrition Coach at Five Points Washington. You might wonder what sets a Health & Nutrition Coach apart from a Nutritionist or Dietician. While nutritionists and dieticians specialize in the scientific study of nutrition from a biochemical standpoint and thus craft tailored dietary plans, as a Health and Nutrition Coach, my focus is on guiding, supporting, and holding individuals accountable as they strive to enhance their dietary habits and overall well-being.

In my role, I assist clients in setting and reaching goals related to weight management, sports performance, disease prevention, or general wellness. Unlike simply prescribing meal plans or dietary restrictions, my approach emphasizes behavior change, aiding clients in developing sustainable lifestyle habits. Along the journey together, as your Nutrition Coach, I help you delve into the "Why?" behind your goals, uncovering your motivations. Together, we cultivate a disciplined mindset that aligns with the new identity you're shaping.

In our sessions, I focus on you as an individual, providing you with valuable knowledge and leaving you with 1-3 actionable steps to kickstart your progress. In the new year, I will be begin offering 1 on 1 session. If you are interested, please scan the QR code and fill out the inquiry form.

They spent a couple hours sorting containers of pants; starting with girls sizes that ranged from new born to 14. Then they worked on sorting boys pants from newborn to 16. Keep Threads, Hope and Love in mind when you are cleaning out your closets or your kids' closets. They take donations Tuesdays from 11AM-6PM.

LIVE @ FIVE POINTS EVENT CENTER & THEATER

Josh Schnetzler
Theater Manager

September was a fairly quiet month for the theater, with the exception of Artrageous: the art and music circus. Everyone who attended the show had a blast and we had incredible reviews from this performance. The following day, Artrageous put on a second performance for some local students in our area as a part of their ArtReach initiative. We had Christ Lutheran School from Peoria, as well as some local homeschool students present to witness a private viewing of the Artrageous show. These students had the chance to participate in the show with the performers and ask questions to the artists!

October was a bit busier for us, as we had multiple concerts throughout the month. Our first major concert was Gospelfest Ministries' first ever county gospel show. With a near-packed theater, it was a great success! Then, on October 10th, we had the sold out performance of Amy Grant, which was a massive hit. We had great reviews and the music was wonderful from Amy Grant. Next, we had back-to-back performances in one weekend! On October 19, we had local rock groups Mixtape Mayhem and Decade of Decadence, then on October 20 we had A Taste of Ireland. Both shows were so full of energy and the crowds were very invested in the performances!

November is another slower month in the theater, with only two shows in the month. Washington Community High School will be hosting their fall musical here from Nov. 21-23: Beauty and the Beast. Then Gospelfest Ministries will host their annual Christmas show on November 30 at 7PM. *Veterans Day is on November 11 and we are happy to offer a special Veterans discount for our January showing of Lee Greenwood. Purchase your tickets for this show online, over the phone, or in person on November 11 and receive 15% off with promo code: vet15.

December is packed with Christmas shows! Starting off with The Wizards of Winter on December 5. They are an offshoot of the Trans-Siberian Orchestra, and they truly help you find the meaning of Christmas. Then, on December 7, Peoria Pops Orchestra will host their annual Christmas show at 6:30PM. Following that, the Peoria Area Civic Chorale hosts their American Family Christmas from December 13-15. Our final Christmas production of the year is Candlelight by Fever on December 20. Their first show will be a tribute to Coldplay, but their second show of the evening will be Christmas tunes featuring The Nutcracker. It should be a beautiful way to cap off our Christmas shows for the year. We hope you will come out and kick off your holiday festivities with us this holiday season!
